

Fall 2008

Dear Friends:

Well, I know that summer must be coming to a close because I see new holiday stamps rolling into the store every day. I'm so excited about our new fall class schedule that I can't wait for you to see what's in store for you! Linda and Linel have out done themselves, once again, to bring us more fun designs, folds, and products all rolled into gorgeous cards that will leave your friends speechless when they open the envelope! And, if that's not enough, we are so honored to have two fabulous guest instructors join us for classes in October. That's right! Check out the schedule right now because you won't want to miss the classes with Nami from DeNami Designs and Agi from Paper Parachute. Of course, we'll be throwing in a make-n-take or two or three just to keep us all busy this fall and to give you some great ideas for holiday cards and gifts. The snow will be flying before we know it so please stop by and see what we have in store for you to fight those winter blues! I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for your business and support of Stamp Garden as we move into year five in 2009. I wish all of you a happy and blessed holiday season.

Best wishes,
Dawn
