

Winter 2005

Dear Friends:

It's hard to believe that a new year is right around the corner. As I reflect on the past year, I'm very thankful for all of the new friends we have met at Stamp Garden and the fun and good fortune we have had during our first half year as a new stamp art business.

We are adding beautiful sample cards to the displays in the store all the time, so please stop by often to see what our great designers are creating. You won't want to miss the retreats, classes and special events we have planned for you this winter. What better way to chase away the winter blues than by stamping!

Happy New Year to all from Dawn and all of the Stamp Garden staff!
